Mifflin County Courts Begin Conducting Hearings Remotely Using Advanced Video Communication Technology

HARRISBURG — At the direction of President Judge Barron, the Mifflin County Court of Common Pleas will now begin holding public hearings via Zoom and YouTube livestream.

During the COVID-19 judicial emergency period while the courthouse remains closed to the general public, the court will livestream public proceedings held via Zoom Cloud Meeting on their YouTube page – search “Mifflin County Court.” The court’s livestream can also be accessed via the court’s website at www.co.mifflin.pa.us, select Court, select Courts and Jury Alerts then click on the YouTube link.

The Court will continue to utilize polycom and telephone conference technology for other hearings.
