Mifflin County Pro Se Petition for Modification of a Partial Custody or Visitation Order

HOW TO FILE A MODIFICATION OF CUSTODY IN MIFFLIN COUNTY

You will need to file in the county where the original custody complaint was filed. Take the original documents and all copies to the Prothonotary's office located on the first floor of the courthouse (address listed above). Be sure that all copies of the Petition are stamped "FILED" by the Prothonotary and returned to you.

After filing the documents at the Prothonotary's Office you need to serve a copy of the petition to each defendant listed on the petition.

After the Judge's office assigns a hearing date and time, you and the defendant will receive a copy of this order in the mail. You will need to appear for this hearing at the date and time specified.

DISCLAIMER BY THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF MIFFLIN COUNTY, PA

The Court staff will not be able to give you legal advice or help you fill out/complete the forms. The information in the packets is not a substitute for professional legal advice. The Court assumes no responsibility and accepts no liability for actions taken by users of these documents, including reliance on their contents. If you want to obtain the services of an attorney but do not know whom to contact, you may call Mid Penn Legal Services at (717)248-3099 or (814)238-4958 or Pennsylvania Lawyer Referral listing at (800)692-7375 or log onto palawhelp.org.

PLEASE TYPE ALL COURT FORMS IF POSSIBLE. If necessary, print NEATLY in blue or black ink.

Until the child(ren) is 18 years old, custody can be litigated and changed. As circumstances and relationships change you may think the order in effect now is not in the child(ren)'s best interest. If you are unable to reach an agreement with the other party concerning a change in the current order you can request a change of order from the court.

Know what it is you are asking the court to change and why. If you file a Petition to Modify you must convince the court that a new order should be entered and be able to tell the court why.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE PETITION FOR MODIFICATION OF A PARTIAL CUSTODY OR VISITATION ORDER

This will give you step by step directions on how to complete the Petition.

- Fill in the caption the same as the caption on the original custody complaint and please put the same docket number for that case on this petition as well.
- 1. This would be your name as you are the one petitioning the court. Then you want to put the date the of the last custody order that was put in place, the one you are wanting to change.
- 2. This is where you want to explain to the court why you think the previous order should be modified.
- The next page you will need to sign and date where indicated.
- On this page you will also need to fill in both parties current address and phone numbers in case the court would need to get in touch with either of you about the proceeding. It is VERY important you provide the court with correct addresses so they can properly notify you of the court date and time.
- On ORDER OF COURT you will ONLY need to fill in the caption and docket number as you did on the Petition.

After you have everything completed take to the Prothonotary's office to file and in return they will provide you with a copy for all plaintiffs and defendants. One is for you and the others will be for you to serve the other party(s) involved. After serving the other party you will need to file the Certificate of Service with the court (you will find instructions on this further in the packet).

The Prothonotary will forward the paperwork to the court who will schedule the hearing and send a copy of the scheduling order to all parties involved.

5. Petitioner has attached the Criminal Record/Abuse History Verification form required pursuant to Pa. R.C.P. no. 1915.3-2.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner requests that the Court modify the existing Order because it will be in the best interest of the child(ren).

(Attorney for Petitioner) (Petitioner)

I verify that the statements made in this Petition are true and correct. I understand that false statements herein are made subject to penalties of 18 Pa.C.S. § 4904 relating to unsworn falsification to authorities.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR SERVICE OF PETITION FOR MODIFICATION OF A PARTIAL CUSTODY OR VISITATION ORDER

After you have filed Petition in the Prothonotary's office, you are required to serve all Defendants with a copy of this complaint.

There are several ways you can handle the serving of the court papers upon the Defendant. This packet will explain two of them.

- 1) Service by mail. This is probably the best way to serve your Complaint. You will need to mail the complaint by first class mail. The type of mailing you must use is called certified mailing, restricted delivery, with a return receipt requested. Your post office worker will be able to help you fill in the certified mailing papers correctly.

This type of mailing is used because the Defendant must sign for the documents before the postal worker will deliver it. This means that you can prove that the Defendant got the complaint because the post office will return a special green card to you that shows the date and time that the letter was given to the Defendant. It is very important you keep this green card because you must file it with the Prothonotary so the judge can see the Defendant was served. As soon as you receive the return receipt card back from the post office you will then complete a Certificate of Service and file it with the Prothonotary. Do not forget to staple the return receipt card to the Certificate of Service you fill in and sign.

- 2) Personal Service. You can have any competent adult who is not a party in the case hand the complaint to the Defendant. An adult is someone eighteen years of age or older. A person is a competent adult if he or she can accurately remember the time and place that the court papers were handed to the Defendant and is capable of reporting that information to the judge. You, because you are a party in the case, may not be the one to hand the papers to the Defendant. You should not have another person hand the papers to the Defendant if there is any danger that the Defendant may harm them. It is generally best in all cases to have the Sheriff handle the service or do it by mail.

If you find it necessary to have another person hand the papers to the Defendant, then that person is the one who must sign the Certification of Service. Have the Certification signed as soon as possible after service is made and file it with the Prothonotary.

If the person serving the papers cannot find the Defendant, he or she may hand the papers to an adult family member of the Defendant living in the same home as the Defendant or who is in charge of that home. If the Defendant lives in a hotel, an apartment house, or a boarding house, the person serving the papers may hand them to the clerk or manager of the residence. The papers may also be handed to the person in charge where the Defendant works. In any case, the person serving the papers must get the name of the person to whom the papers are handed and put the name in the space provided on the Certificate of Service.

Properly serving complaint is very important. If this is not handled properly the court may delay the hearing in your case.

(a) Criminal or Abuse History Verification. The petitioner must file and serve with the complaint, or any petition for modification, a verification regarding any criminal or abuse history of the petitioner and anyone living in the petitioner's household. The verification shall be substantially in the form set forth in subdivision (c) below. The petitioner must attach a blank verification form to a complaint or petition served upon the respondent. Although the respondent need not file a responsive pleading pursuant to Rule 1915.5, the respondent must file with the court a verification regarding any criminal or abuse history of the respondent and anyone living in the respondent's household on or before the initial in-person contact with the court (including, but not limited to, a conference with a conference officer or judge or conciliation, depending upon the procedure in the judicial district) but not later than 30 days after service of the complaint or petition upon the respondent. Both parties shall file and serve updated verifications five days prior to trial.

(b) Initial Evaluation. At the initial in-person contact with the court, the judge, conference officer, conciliator or other appointed individual shall perform an initial evaluation to determine whether the existence of a criminal or abuse history of either party or a party's household member poses a threat to the child and whether counseling is necessary. The initial evaluation required by 23 Pa.C.S. §5329(c) shall not be conducted by a mental health professional. After the initial evaluation, the court may order further evaluation or counseling by a mental health professional if the court determines it is necessary. Consistent with the best interests of the child, the court may enter a temporary custody order on behalf of a party with a criminal history or a party with a household member who has a criminal history, pending the party's or household member's evaluation and/or counseling.

Note: The court shall consider evidence of criminal or abusive history presented by the parties. There is no obligation for the court to conduct an independent investigation of the criminal or abusive history of either party or members of their household. The court should not consider ARD or other diversionary programs. When determining whether a party or household member requires further evaluation or counseling, or whether a party or household member poses a threat to a child, the court should give consideration to the severity of the offense, the age of the offense, whether the victim of the offense was a child or family member and whether the offense involved violence.

(c) Verification. The verification regarding criminal or abuse history shall be substantially in the following form:
